Iroquois High School
Lawrence Park
Erie, Pennsylvania

As the Iroquois Indian Braves had "to be as one" to be a strong, undivided nation, so the students and faculty of Iroquois High School have had to unite to be a successful institution of learning. In a combined effort, the Lawrence Park and Wesleyville students have united in sports, in extra-curricular activities, and in setting new goals for the future. They knew that they had "to be as one", the meaning of the ancient Indian word "mewat", in order to set a strong foundation for the new school. Old traditions are but memories, and new, different traditions are the goals among which the 1966 BRAVERO is but a first. The two schools have met at the fork in the road, and will proceed as one, climbing to the heights of success.

CUSTODIANS

"It's a dusty old world," but our custodians manage to keep the school in A-1 condition. Working from dawn to well beyond dusk, this hard-working crew certainly deserves special recognition from the student body.

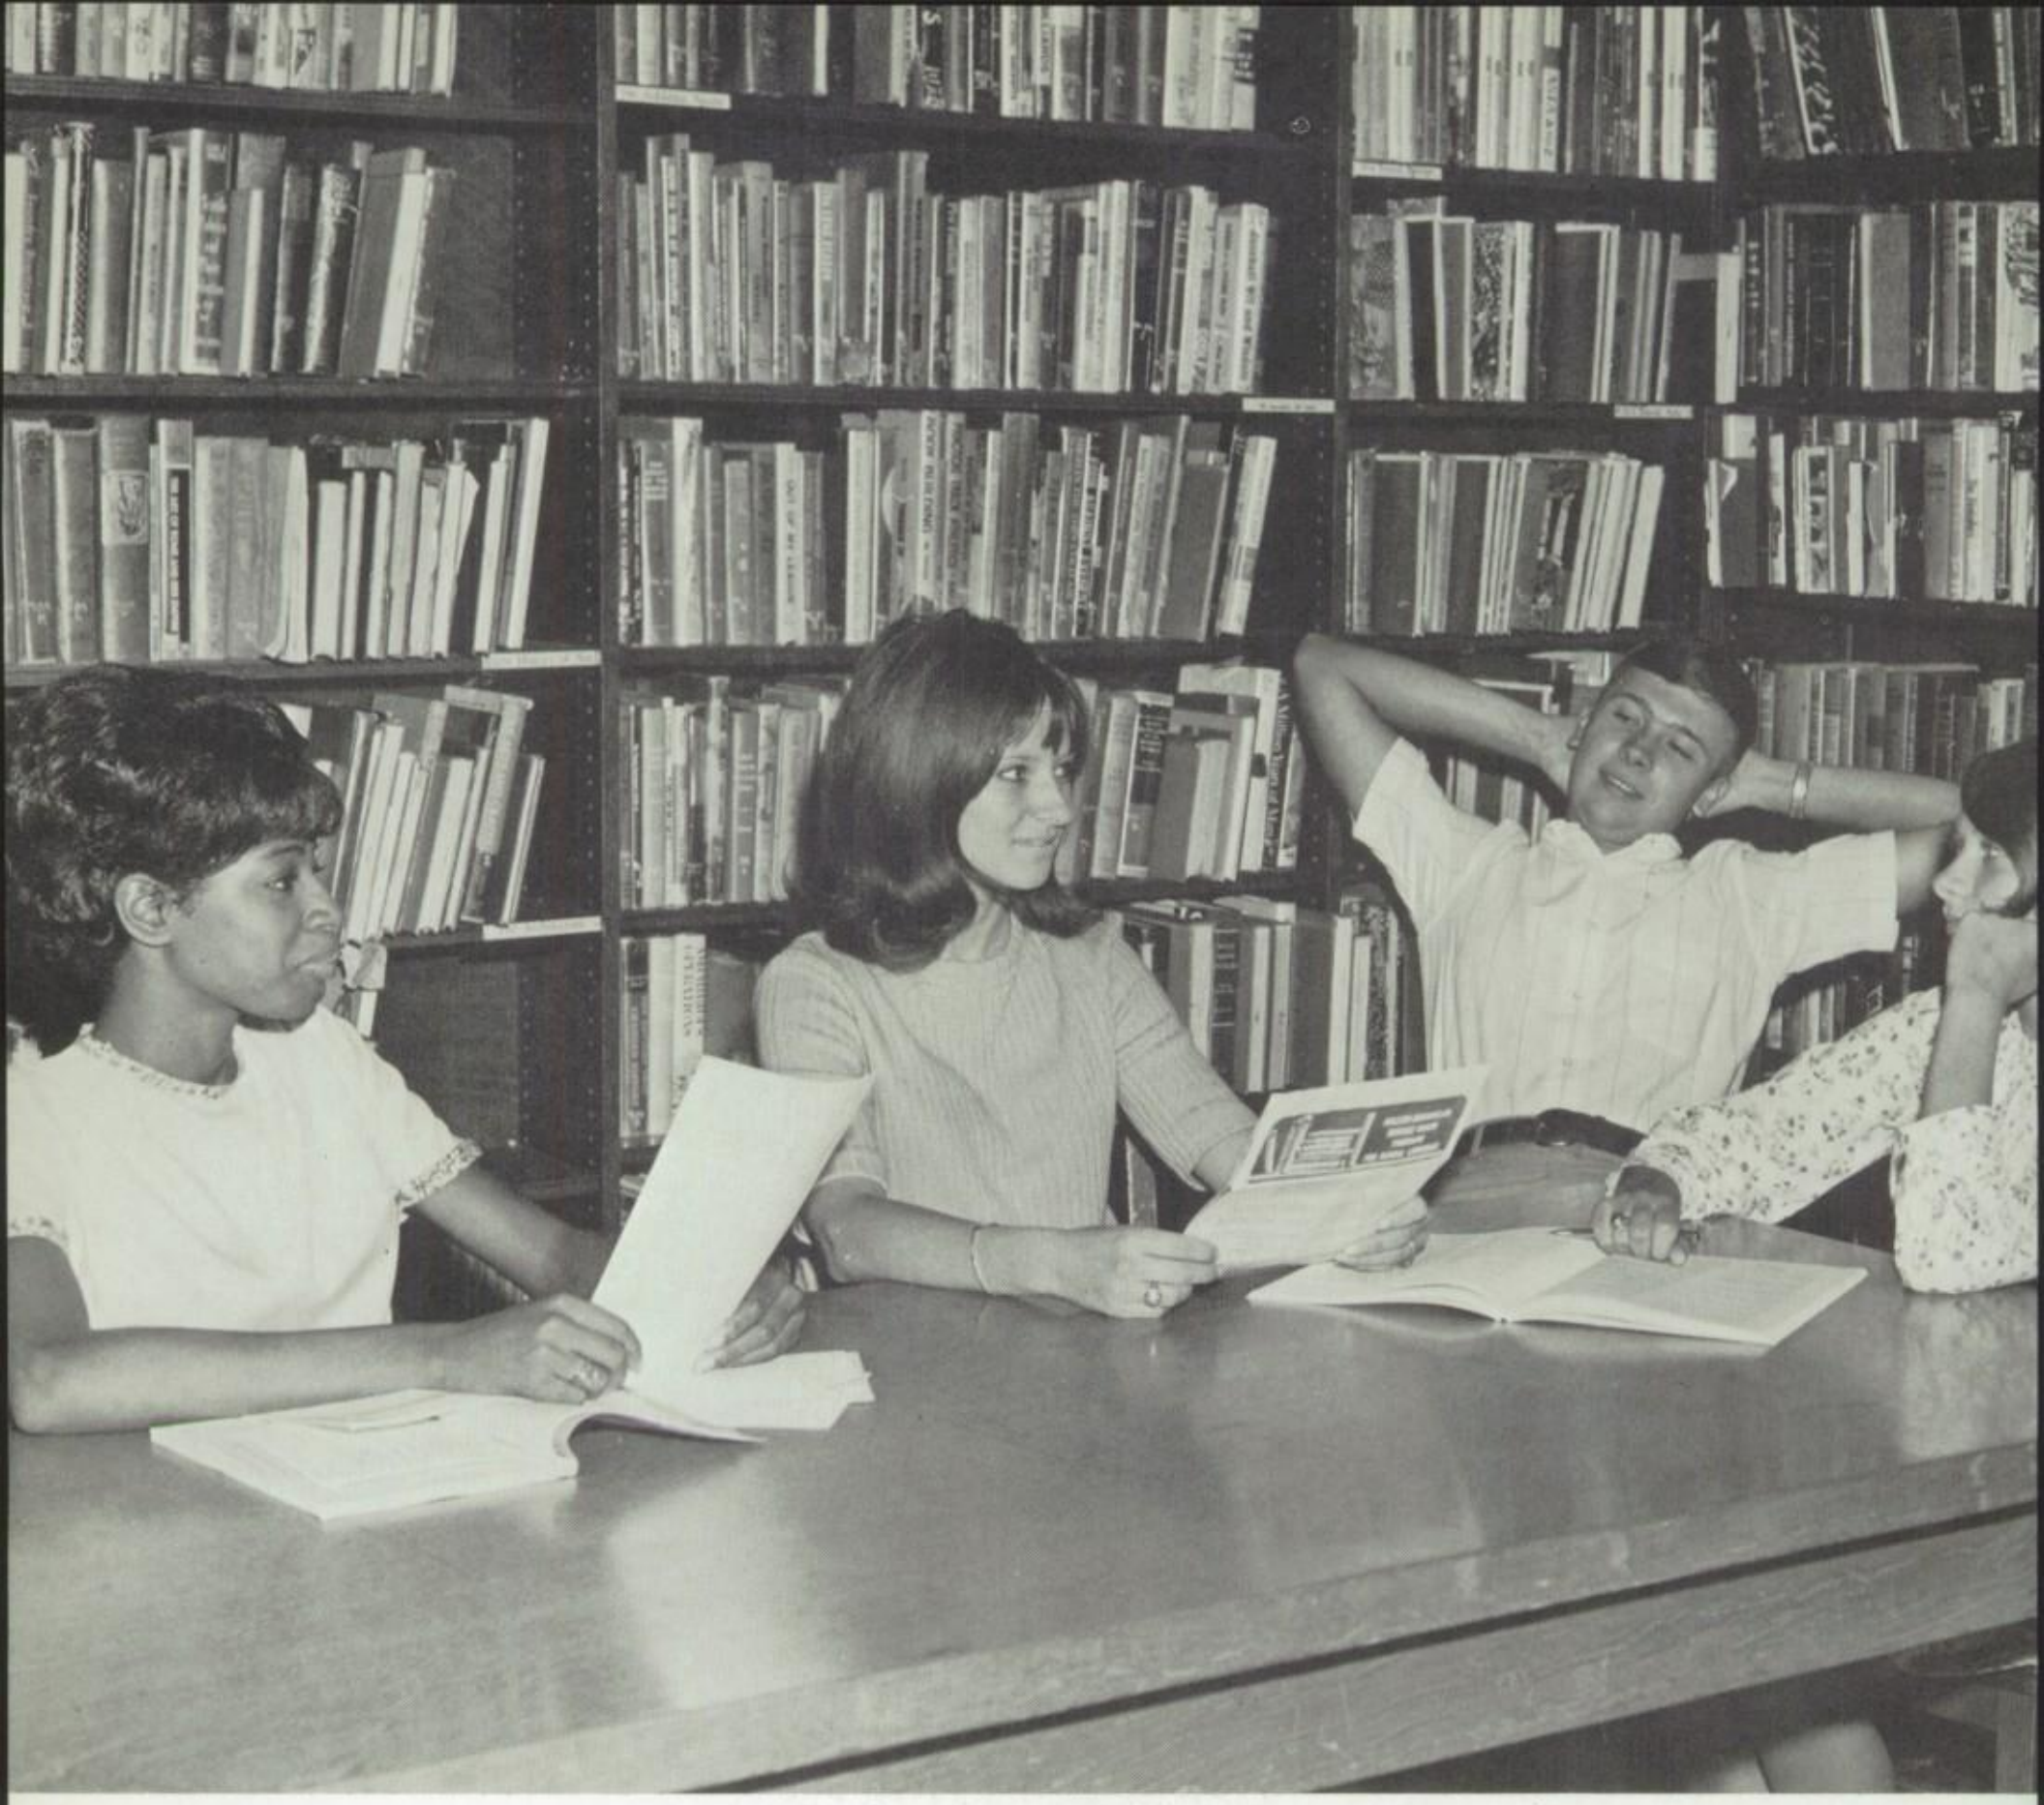
Mrs. Eleanor Jones, R.N.

Mrs. Cora F. Menzel, R.N.

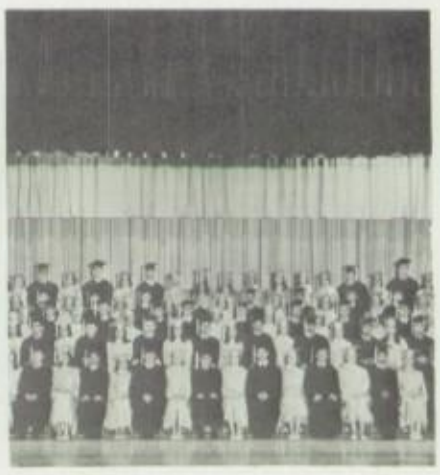
NURSES

"Life is just a bowl of aspirin." Our nurses were always willing and able to treat all our aches and pains, breaks and sprains with kindness and aspirin. Their greatest concern has been our physical health and well-being.

Mrs. Vena Skellie, R.N.



ORGANIZATIONS



Future Teachers Of America

F.T.A. seeks to give an inside glance at the teaching profession. To accomplish this, the members participated as teacher-aides at primary, elementary, and high school levels. Films, speakers, and visits to area colleges contributed to knowledge of a career in education. Money was raised for a scholarship fund, and Sharon Hewitt represented I.H.S. at the state convention in Harrisburg.

Youth Center

Thanks to the Youth Center Committee, a recreation place with programs was provided for the student body. The U. E. Hall was the scene of much week-end fun highlighted this year by the appearance of Go-Go Girls, the music of the Shadows, Mr. Poly Night, and Flashlight Night.

Student Council

Coordinating student activities was the principal objective of the Student Council. Headed by Presidents Ethelynne Jacobs and Dick Bonniger, the group also sponsored a flag contest to select the official Iroquois High School flag; participated in a five county conference; and directed a sweatshirt sale.

Library Council

In addition to active duties in the library, this group undertook several service projects: decorating the library for Christmas, supplying socks for Korean orphans, and entertaining the children at St. Joseph's Home. New members were initiated during an impressive candle light ceremony.

French Club

Le Cercle Francais, whose primary purpose is to acquaint its participants better with the French language and culture, conducted monthly pizza sales and a tri-color ribbon sale to finance a spring banquet. From Gannon College Mr. Raymond Clough came to lecture to the Club on existentialism.

Spanish Club

For those linguists whose interests were Spanish, this club was established. Members were given an opportunity to practice the language in social situations, and enjoy visiting speakers. This club sponsored the noon hour canteen.

Aid-To-India Club

The Aid-to-India Club, under the direction of Mr. Kring, was formed to aid financially Birabati School, Cuttack, Orissa, India. Among the various money raising campaigns was a much publicized and successful nickel drive.

United Nations Club

In November delegates from I.H.S. represented Syria in the annual Model United Nations Assembly at Gannon College. Following this event members of the delegation organized a U.N. Club to promote an interest in world affairs, and to prepare for future U.N. Assemblies.

Future Nurses Club

Girls whose ambition is to dedicate their services to the welfare of mankind in the medical profession are members of this club. Activities included service projects and field trips to major hospitals.

Debate Club

Participation in Lake Erie League debates, tournament and banquet at Union City highlighted the year's order of events. The debaters are proud of Muriel Thomas who won a best speaker award--the first speech trophy for the new school.

Homemaking Club

Information and practical experience for girls considering Home Economics as a career or later vocation are given to members of this club. Bake sales provided experience in cooking, and the business of commercial candy making was studied during a field trip to Pulakos.

Jr. High Sewing Club

Foods, patterns, and materials were the concern of these Junior High Home Economics students. They met weekly with Mrs. Dorothy Cox to sew, have refreshments, and enjoy good fellowship.

Lawrence Park Chorus

Sr. Chorus

Our senior choruses rehearsed separately this year under the direction of the Messrs. Brooks, and Lewis. Each group entertained at the Thanksgiving assemblies presented in both buildings, and the Wesleyville Chorus gave an evening Christmas Program. A combined performance was given at the Spring Festival held at Lawrence Park. The year's final presentation occurred when the junior and sophomore members performed at Baccalaureate.

Wesleyville Chorus

Lawrence Park Jr. Chorus

All those Monday noon-hour practices of the Jr. High Chorus certainly paid off. Their performance at the Christmas Assembly was quite professional, as was the accompaniment provided by eighth-grader, Brenda Jones. This part of the program was highlighted by a special number sung by Holly Locke, Pam Moon, Meg Kathman, Diane Hadlock, and Lynn Anderson.

Representatives To District Chorus

Members of the Sr. Choruses who traveled to Warren, Pennsylvania to participate in a District Chorus program were: Sue Gray, Chris Anderson, Judy Crum, Kathy Alexander, Linda Parrish, Don Fickenscher, Tim Shadle, Dave Millet, Jack Reynolds, Dick Bonniger, Bonnie DeWitt, Katherine Smock, Jim Greider, and Keith Alexander.

Wesleyville Sr. Band

The Senior Band met for rehearsals at eight A.M. daily and contributed much to the student life at Wesleyville. Appearances were made at pep assemblies, a football game, a Christmas Concert, Tri-band Concert, the Arts Festival, and Graduation. A number of students participated in District Band held at Franklin, Pennsylvania.

Lawrence Park Band

The Lawrence Park Band has been quite busy this past year. Under the direction of Mr. Lewis, they have played at numerous assemblies and football games. The combined efforts of Wesleyville and Lawrence Park Bands provided a peppy sound for one of Iroquois' many victories. A number of students attended District and Regional Festivals. All the members of this organization participated in the Tri-band and Spring Festivals, Memorial Day Services, and the first Iroquois Commencement exercises.

Wesleyville Jr. Band

Junior Band pupils are potential members who study their particular instrument in small group lessons once a week. As they progress, they learn the fundamentals of band technique and will one day take their places as members of the Senior Band.

Jr. High Science Club

Miniature rockets with solid fuel pellets and launching pads were constructed by members of the Jr. High Science Club this year. They also visited the Erie Airport on a field trip, and prepared displays for the P.T.A. summer science festival.

Chess Club

Under the supervision of Mr. Foffi, members of the Chess Club met at noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays to develop their skill in playing the internationally famous game. A tournament at the end of the year climaxed their activities.

Conservation Club

This is a service organization for both school and community. The past year has been spent on such projects as feeding the birds in the school yard as well as in Presque Isle State Park; conducting a tree survey of "the woods" in Lawrence Park; and promoting a spring anti-litter campaign.

Future Business Leaders of America Club

To raise money to send members to conventions in Warren and Youngsville was the chief aim of these business leaders of tomorrow. They did this by selling submarine sandwiches, license plates, and pies. The main event of the year was attendance at a state convention at Harrisburg where the delegates competed in business skill tests.

Stage Crews

As the name implies, this was a small group of boys who took care of the stage work during plays, concerts, etc. They erected the scenery, built the props, and operated the lights and curtains.

Projection Crews

Good and efficient service with audio-visual equipment was given by this group of boys whose responsibilities included delivering the projectors, screens, and portable record players to the teachers. They set up the microphones in the auditorium and took care of the amplifiers. Their duties also kept them busy during after-school hours at dances and and PTA meetings.

Sr. Hi-Y

Cooperation in activities that "create, maintain, and extend" high standards of Christian character is the goal of these fellows. With basketball, movies, and speakers they had a lively year.

Jacket Club

Composed of boys who have earned their varsity letters, the Jacket Club worked diligently this year to finance their sharp black and gold jackets. Money raising projects included car washes, and the sale of programs at various sports events. As the "Injun Joes" they battled the faculty in the annual Senior-Faculty basketball game.

Jr. Hi-Y

Organized for service and social activities Junior "Hi Yers" aim for Christian thought, action, and leadership.

SPORTS

Varsity Football

The Braves, this year's Erie County League football champions, swept through eight conference games undefeated–compiling three of their biggest winning margins against their closest pursuers: 26–13 over Fort LeBoeuf, 18–0 over General McLane, and 19–6 over Fairview. Iroquois had enough depth and experience to use a two-platoon system with the exception of four boys who played both offense and defense. (York, Seus, Dengel, Major) Coach Manafo's kickoff defensive unit can point proudly to play charts which show no opponent returning a kick past the 40-yard line.

Congratulations to the team and to Coach Poly who was named Erie County Coach of the Year.

THE FRUITS OF LABOR

GO!---GO!---GO!

Games were scheduled with Wattsburg, Harborcreek, North East, McDowell, Girard, and Union City. The record shows 4 wins for the J. V. Braves. The outstanding play of the season was made by Bob Schrecongost when he ran back a 70 yard kick for a T D to clinch the Harborcreek game. Besides Bob, the high scorers were Ralph Thomas and Tom Sullivan. Mr. Sinnott and Mr. Spencer were the coaches.

Jr. Varsity Football

1–2–1 was the Junior High Football record after exciting games with Union City, Harborcreek, West Lake and Fairview. Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Ketchel coached the teams who were known as the Go Team, Bandits, and Scrubs. Dick Charcalla was high scorer with 2 T Ds, one of which was the result of a 78 yard run against Union City.

Jr. High Football

Varsity Cheerleaders

Iroquois High's first Varsity Cheerleading Squad gave our football, wrestling, and basketball teams loyal support game after game and match after match. Their new uniforms were paid for with the profits from such activities as Homecoming Weekend, car-washes, and dances. Many thanks go to their helpful faculty advisors, Miss Williams and Miss Ohman.

Cheerleaders

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

The seven girls pictured to the right could be found many an afternoon in the hallways at school practicing established cheers and designing new ones. They worked closely with the Varsity Squad, and were appreciated not only by that group, but by the J. V. athletes as well.

Jr. High Cheerleaders

Dependability is a word which aptly describes this year's Jr. High Cheerleaders. No matter what the occasion, afternoon basketball or football games, home or away, they went where the action was and always brought encouragement to team members.

Cadets

The Cadets, an impressive marching unit under the capable direction of Mrs. McLane, spent many hours preparing half-time entertainment for our football and basketball games. In order to raise money for new Iroquois uniforms, the Cadets delivered leaflets and washed cars. A result of their efforts was a well-organized, well-dressed Cadet organization.

Jr. High Twirlers

Appearing at various football games, the members of this energetic group demonstrated great potential in future twirling. One of their most profitable activities was a Halloween candy sale which enabled them to buy new uniforms. Their capable leader was Barbara Mohnkern.

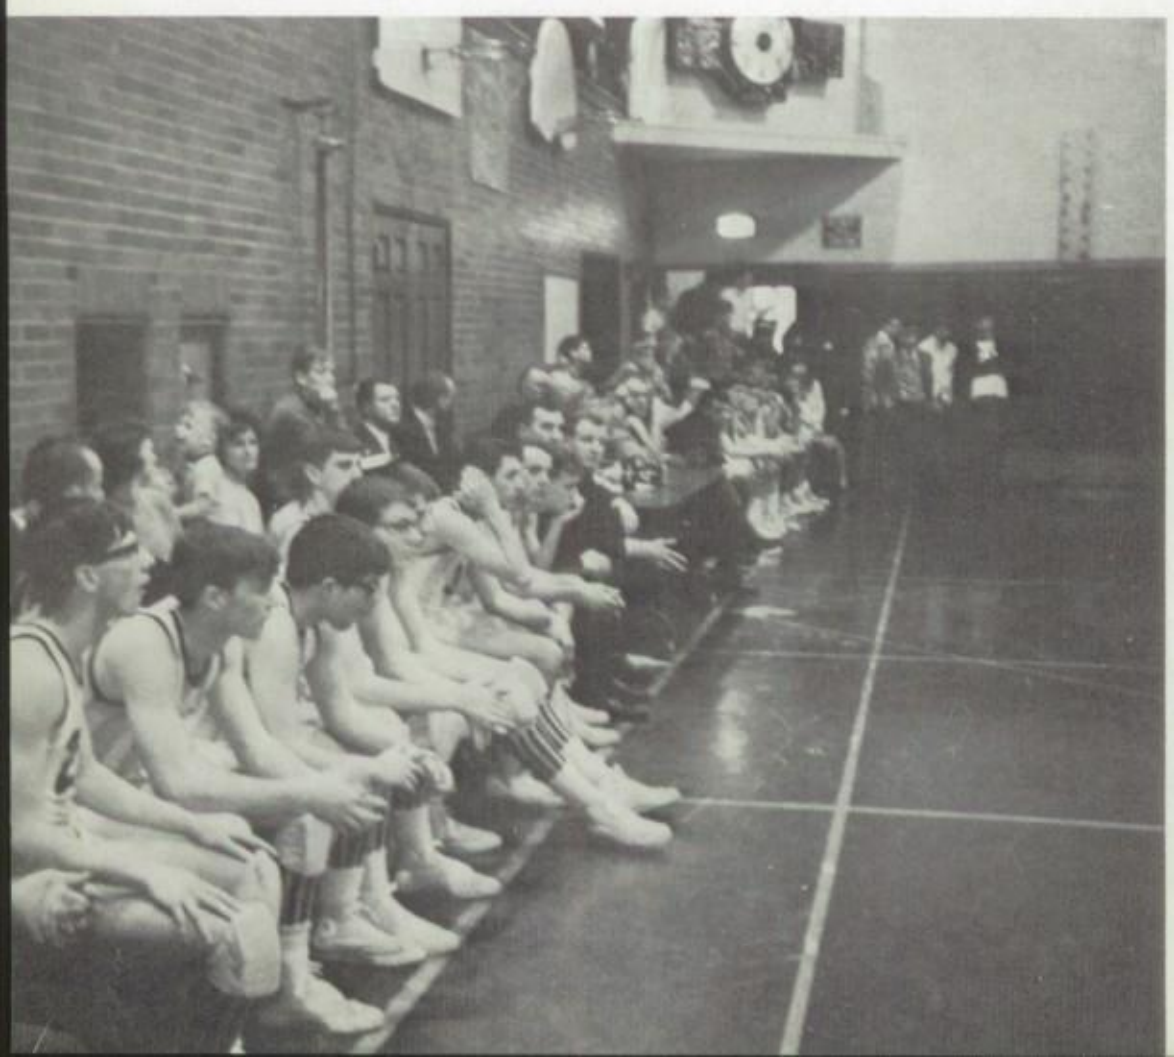
Twirlers

Sr. High Twirlers

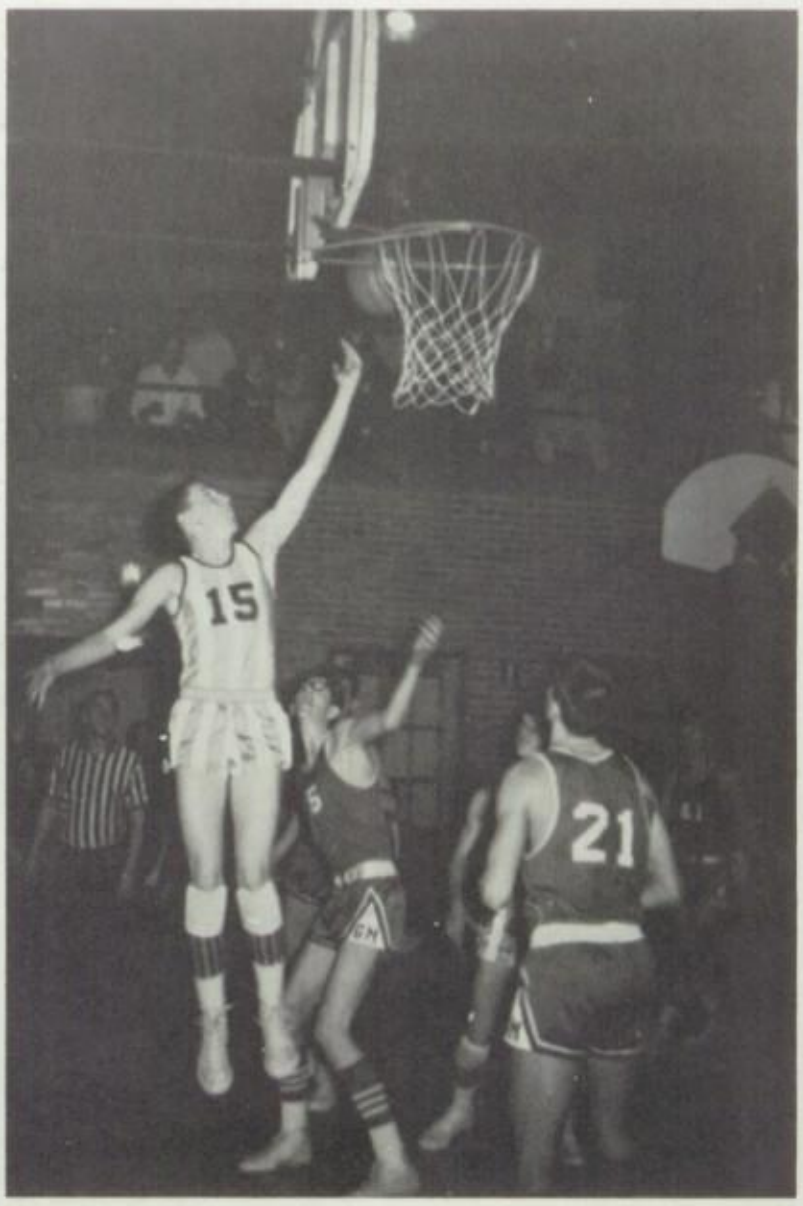
Hours of hard practice led by Cheryl McGavisk and Nancy Daglish resulted in snappy routines and original half-time performances. Those who made the first Iroquois squad a success were: C. Cancilla, S. Carnahan, M. Cutt, N. Daglish, L. McLean, S. Shroyer, N. Zdarko, R. Avedisian, L. McCurdy, B. Ward, C. McGavisk, J. Morehead, B. Lehman.

Varsity Basketball

"Ready Reserves"



"Dave scores"



Although we were not the league champs this year, the Iroquois Braves were right on top when it came to determination. Coached by Mr. Barringer and Mr. Farnbaugh the ball club this year was headed by such stalwarts as Bob Ball, Dick Bonniger, and Tim Shafer. Hardworking juniors and sophomores were Chuck Dengel, Skip Kellogg, Mike Kubasik, Andy Larson, Tony Major, Tom Miller, Dave Moorhead, Randy Nanni, Tom Schoenfeld, Bob Schrecongost and Joe Sholtis.

After overcoming many obstacles and devoting many hours of hard work in practice, our team put forth splendid efforts resulting in many tension-filled games with man-to-man battles right to the finish.

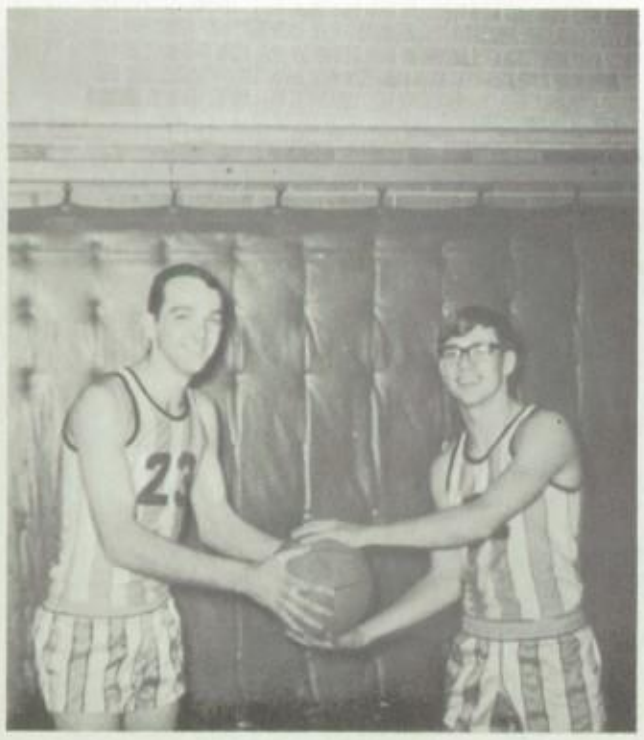
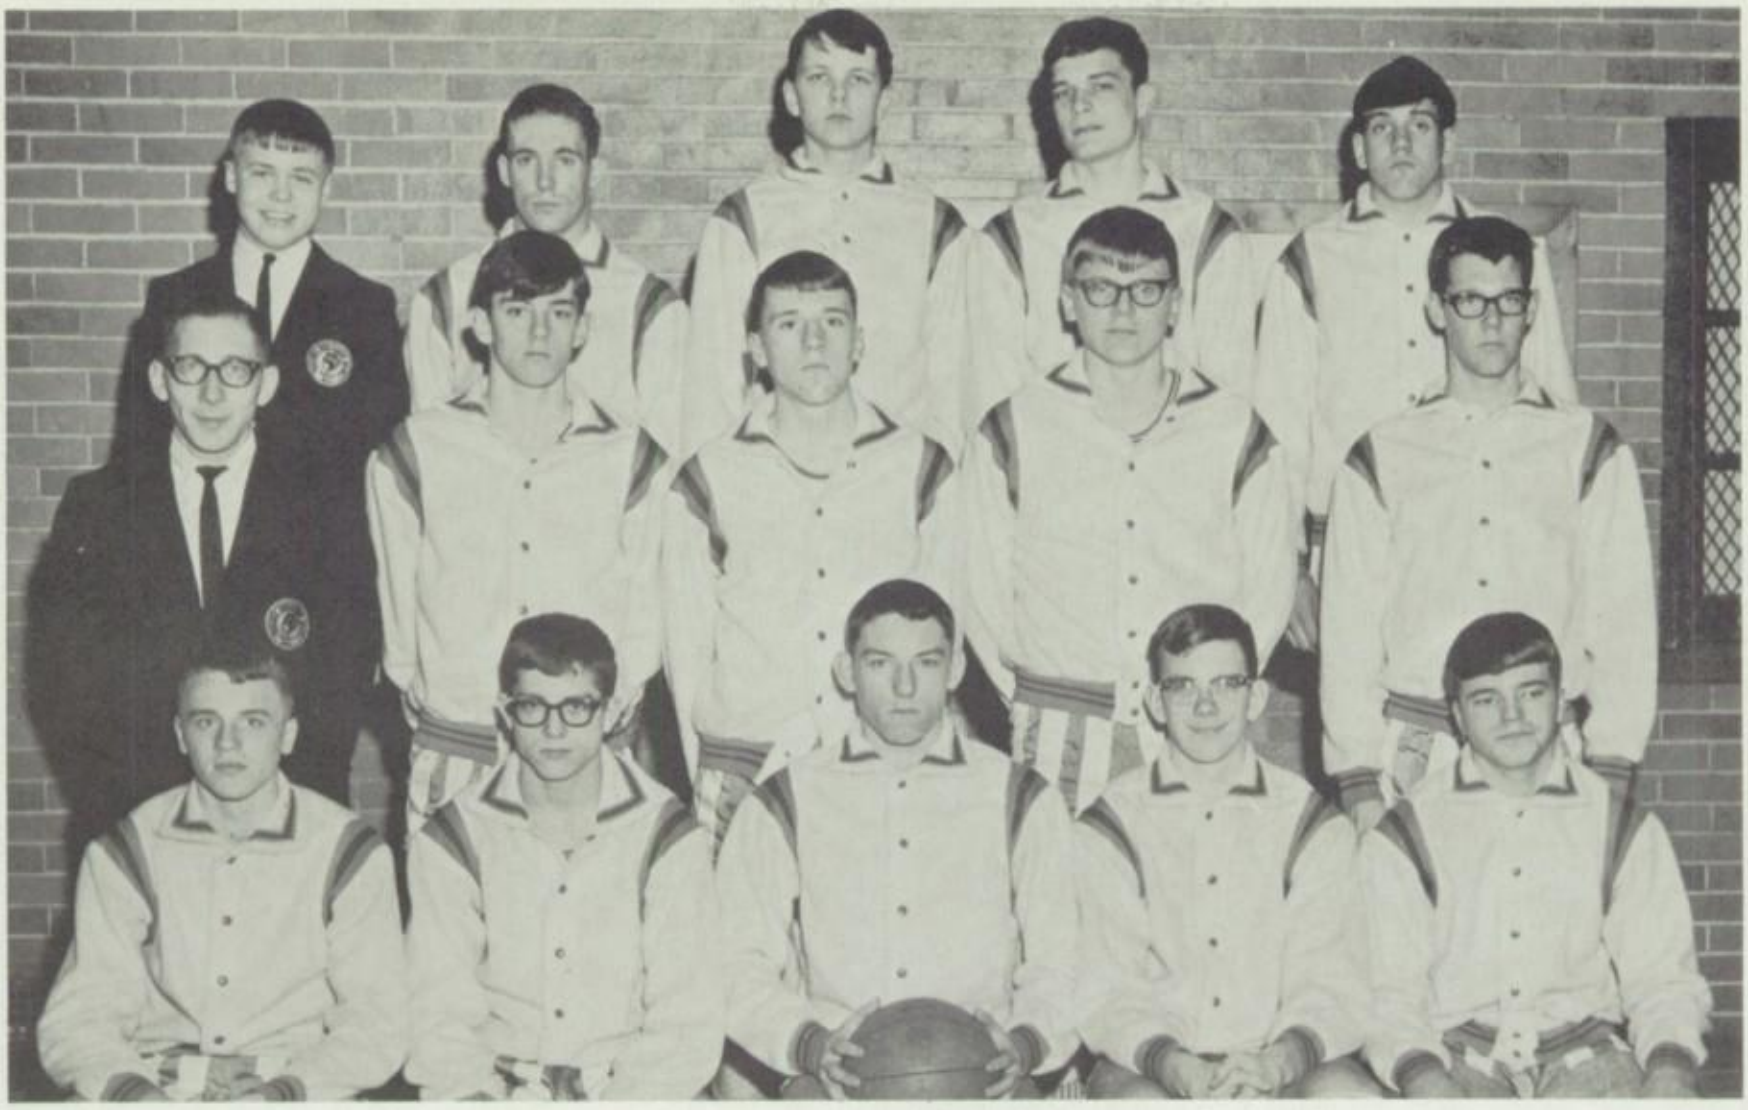
Captains



Braves vs. Wildcats



The spirited Junior Varsity Squad enjoyed an exceptionally fine season with a final record of 14–3. They displayed a powerful offensive unit, superb rebounding, tremendous spirit, and excellent defensive playmaking. Their most outstanding event of the year was a rigorous game played at Harborcreek when they bombed the Huskies with a score of 18–6. The mighty teammates on this powerful squad coached by Mr. Parry and headed by Dan Kiel are Tom Bennett, Larry Blake, Jim Erdle, Pat Gerity, Mike Hook, Dennis Hutchinson, John Kathman, George Lucore, Doug Moorhead, Don Rice, Bob Schrecongost, and Tim Sullivan.

Jr. Varsity Basketball

These young Braves learned the secret of success early in life. They combined talent with united team effort, sportsmanship, and fair play to produce the Junior High Champs of the Erie County League. Most important, however, they were not merely a group of stars, but seventeen boys working as a team. Mr. Lombardo is proud of his boys who are managed by Don Johnson and Phil Young. Dennis McLaughlin and Don Wilson have displayed a high quality of leadership and stimulated their teammates with abounding enthusiasm.

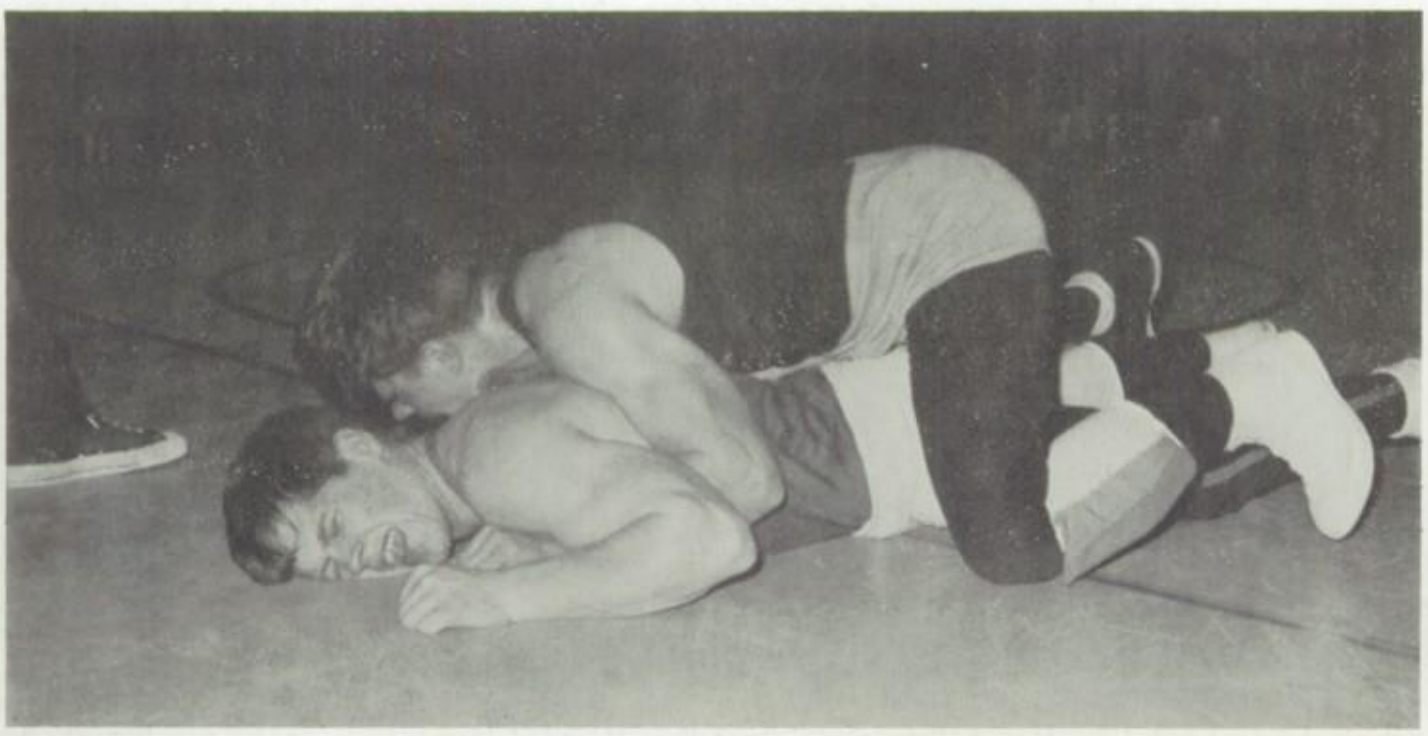
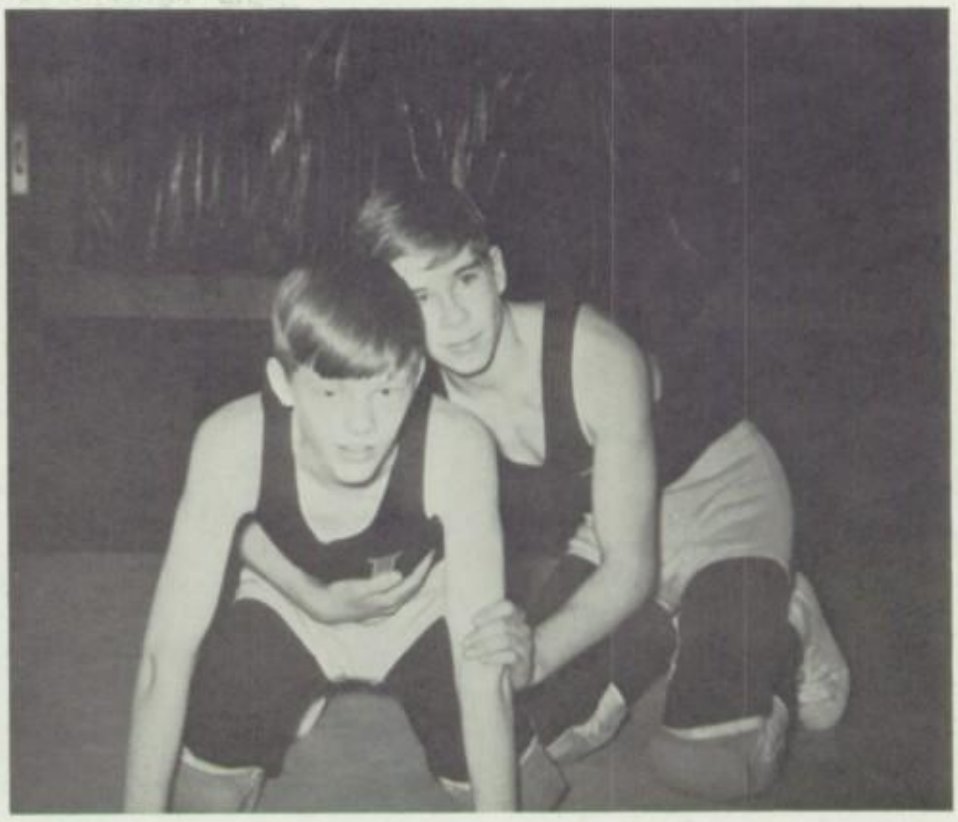
Jr. High Basketball

Sr. High Wrestling

Iroquois men of grappling action wrestled such established city squads as Academy, Tech, Prep, and East as well as the county's LeBoeuf, Northwestern, Fairview, Union City, Harborcreek, and Girard groups this year. All home matches and practices were held in the Wesleyville gym under the supervision of coaches Bottorf and Sinnott. Junior Varsity conflicts were staged with Academy at McDowell. Two high scorers were Dennis Perry and Keith Bartlett. Main events of the season included the Girard Tournament and the District Tournament which took place at Tech High School.





Jr. High Wrestling

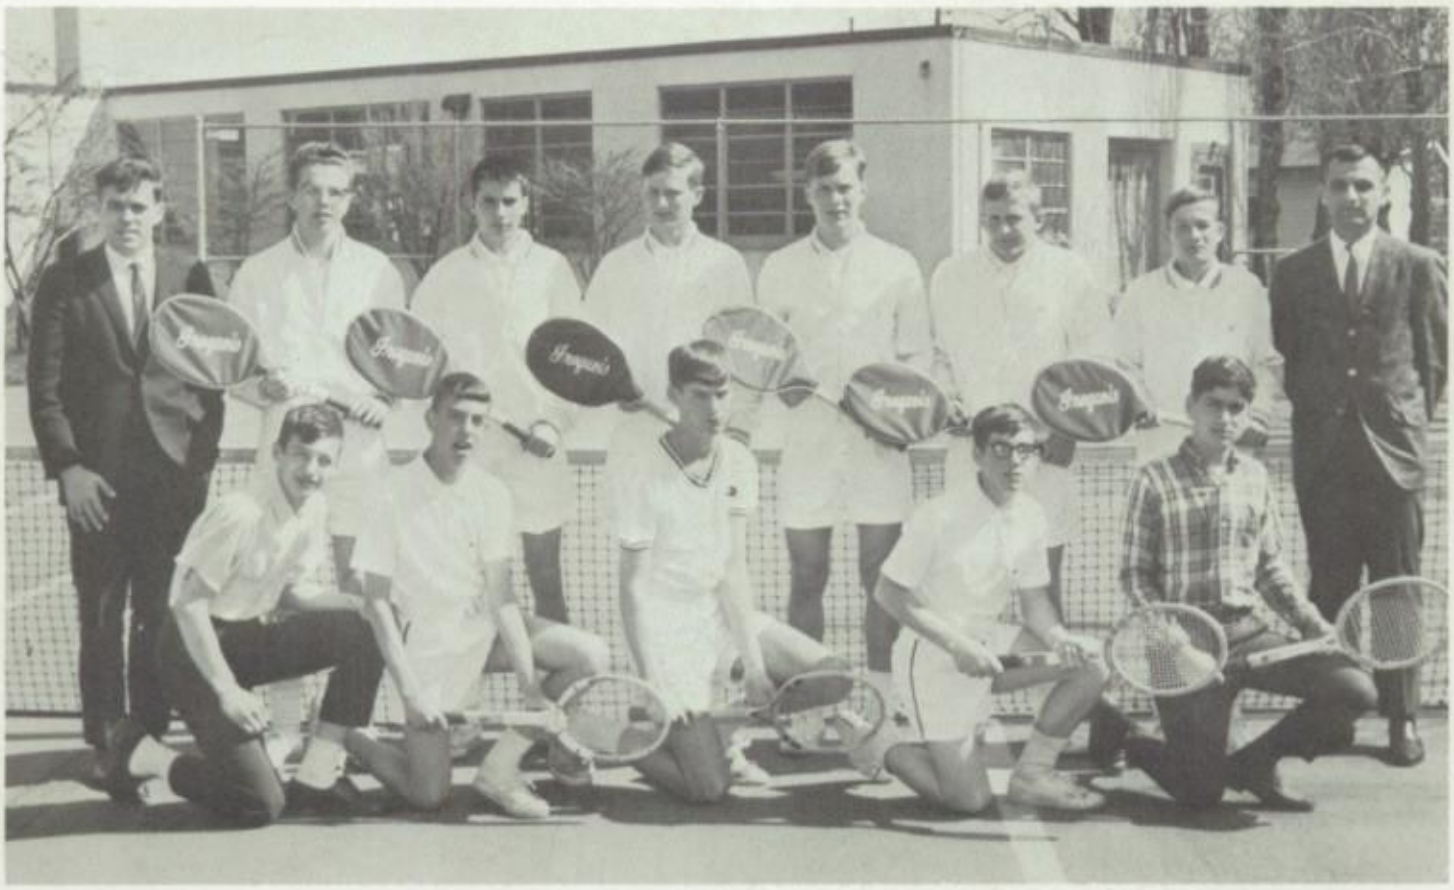
Preceding every Varsity match, with the exception of the Prep bout, sports fans enjoyed the Jr. High Preliminaries. Boys receiving Jr. High letters for their participation in these events were: Ted Bartlett, Larry Cessna, Tom Conti, Mark Dunn, Tom Dugan, Tom Gerity, Dave Graham, Paul Jazenski, John Pavlinko, Mark Robbins, Ed Trimmer, and Craig Turnbull.

Track and Field

Placing second in the county, the Iroquois Track Team scored a successful season with four wins and only one loss. County recognition was attained by Bob Ball in the high hurdles, Dick Bonniger in the one hundred yard dash, and Tom Bennett in the mile run.

Golf

When they defeated McDowell by two strokes, our Varsity Six Golf Team captured the District 10 Championship. This outstanding event took place last spring at the Riverside Country Club in Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania. Our "pros", who were coached by Mr. Spencer, played all their home matches at the Lawrence Park Golf Course.



Tennis

We are proud of our Tennis Team which has brought high honors to our school. This season, the team, lead by Mr. Lauffer, placed first in the county with an outstanding record of ten wins and two losses.

Baseball

Good sportsmanship is a term that well describes the attitude of this year's Iroquois Baseball Team. Although they did not come out on top, the boys never lost their eagerness to play. We congratulate Mr. Farnbaugh whose experience and ambition helped him to introduce this sport into our school activities.

Jr. GAA

The Junior High GAA met once a week, usually on Tuesday nights. Under the leadership of their president, Mary Smock, they engaged in various sports such as basketball and volleyball. This year two penny suppers were enjoyed by the girls, who are looking forward to future experience in the senior group.

Sr. GAA

The Senior High GAA met every Wednesday night to take part in a number of athletic activities. In addition to their regular meetings, they had several penny suppers, bowling excursions, and beach parties.

The Senior AFS Tea was held to honor the arrival of Suzanne and Hasson.

"There's always room for Jello," says our petite Suzan from Edirne, Turkey. Jello is just one of the new experiences which Sue has enjoyed during her senior year at Iroquois. She made her home here with the John Mancini family in Wesleyville. Her vivacious manner and keen mind have won the hearts of all her American friends.

Charlene Kienholz, our American Field Service Exchange Student, spent the year of 1965 in Brazil. There, she lived in the city of Marilia and became a member of the Cavallari family. Attending the Instituto de Educacao Monsenhor Bicudo, she took the Classical Course from which she proudly was graduated on December 16. Charlene expresses that it was a year to remember as well as a most rewarding one.

A F S

A shy smile is a trademark of our exchange student this year who came to us from Kabul, Afghanistan. Hasson broke the language barrier when he left his Persian behind to learn the completely different English language. His many speeches, his role in a one-act play, and his everyday life with the Peightals constitute a large portion of the memories that he will take back to his native land.

Yearbook Staff

When the Yearbook is published in August, the staff can relax and hope the result is worth the effort. Long before that time, however, the people pictured on these pages planned, worried, and worked, sometimes through hot June days. Photography, art, and layout problems presented themselves, were solved, and disappeared. That's how BRAVERO was born.

Looking back, we find it is necessary to commend: Photographers Eric Menzel, Dick Bonniger, and Linda Parrish who collected a priceless assortment of pictures representing our school life; Art Editor Sharon Hewitt whose symbolic Indian design was selected for the cover of our book; and Advisors Mrs. Ruth Paterson and Miss Elizabeth Hamburger for their assistance at all times.

Ingenious and dependable describe BRAVERO'S business, typing, and literary staffs. To Mr. Francis Catherine goes a special "thank you". He supervised the business, circulation, and typing groups. His assistant in the Wesleyville building was Jim O'Keefe.

Never at a loss for a word or witticism was the literary group. The original ideas and constant enthusiasm of Pam Kopnitsky, Heidi Lewis, Charl Keinholz, Judi Crum, and Linda Freeland subtly helped to develop the "mewat" theme.

Finally, for proof of the "two-that-shall-be-as-one" idea we acknowledge our co-editors, Sandy Bennett and Kim Young who brought together and directed the staffs of the first I H S yearbook.

Off The Track

Wesleyville's Senior Play was presented on Friday, April 15. The three act comedy, entitled "Off the Track," takes place on a stormy night in a small wayside railroad station. Passengers of a derailed train are obliged to wait there until they can continue their journey. Never to be forgotten were the many hilarious scenes, particularly the amusing character interpretations which were so ably portrayed by the students. Director was Miss Jane Knickerbocker and Student Director was Lorraine Marko.

Senior Plays

Rally Round The Flag, Boys!

The Senior Class Play, presented in the Lawrence Park building, was the patriotic comedy, "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" High praise was given in particular to the cast and to the early American setting and costumes. Long to be remembered scenes were "the fight," "the picnic," and "the fireworks." Congratulations to Lori Honey and Jack Stager who received best acting awards for their performances. Director was Mrs. Jessie Lynn Skala and Student Director was Ethelynne Jacobs.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society represents a chosen segment of the student body selected by the faculty using as criteria the four major categories of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Membership denotes a well rounded student who achieves high scholastically as well as contributes to the life of the school. The local chapter was chartered in 1936.

This year the induction ceremony was directed by members Linda Freeland, Sharon Hewitt, Ethelyne Jacobs, Charlene Keinholz, Pam Kipnitsky, Linda Parrish, and Barb Schrecongost. Speakers were Mr. John MacKinlay, Mr. William Parrish, and Mr. Dan Skala.

Those who attained membership were: N. Adams, S. Bennett, R. Bonniger, G. Bracalento, R. Carlson, B. DeWitt, D. Drabic, S. Grabowski, K. Lamb, H. Lewis, K. Lorenz, J. Spears, D. Tryon, K. Young, C. Anderson, M. Cunningham, D. Fickenscher, R. Hagle, C. Hill, K. Hosmer, C. S. Mancini, S. Matcham, L. McLean, S. Muth, C. Ott, S. Peterson, M. Thomas, D. Tryon, D. Warrick, N. Zdarko, and R. Zuck.

Named as probationary sophomores were: N. Amicucci, K. Armbruster, K. Bonniger, J. Carroll, K. Cunningham, B. Lehman, L. McIntosh, and R. Schrecongost.

Homecoming

On October 1, 1965, the Iroquois Homecoming program was presented at the Harborcreek field. Former queens Suzanne Poly and Sue Romecki crowned the newly-elected sovereigns--Linda Burrows, Bob Ball, Nancy Adams, and Dick Bonniger. Members of the court were Mary Jane Morehouse, Ethelynne Jacobs, Linda Freeland, and Sue Carnahan, Dave Bellis, Ray Bennett, Gil Seus, and Mick Manafo. The two queens were presented with red roses, while their attendants received nosegays. The following evening, both royal couples reigned over the Homecoming Dance at the U. E. Hall.

Grape Queen

Nancy Adams, representing the Senior Class, was crowned Pennsylvania Grape Queen last September. Her travels extended from Saint Catherine in Canada to Harrisburg where she met Governor Scranton. From June 19th to the 24th, she competed at Atlantic City for the title of State Commodity Queen.

Queens Sue Carnahan and Sharon Hewitt; King, Dave Bellis and Ray Bennett.

Castles, knights in armor, and royal thrones decorated the scene of this year's Junior-Senior Prom, "A Night of a Thousand Dreams." The gala affair was held at the Shrine Club on May 6, with music by Dale Higgins and his orchestra. All those who attended enjoyed a lovely evening.

"A Night Of A Thousand Dreams"

Senior Banquet

Al Beute and Ray Bennett toasted a fine banquet to distinguished guests and fellow classmates. Many excellent speeches were made by members of our administration pertaining to the activities of the Senior Class, both past and present. The final touch to this traditional event was provided by the senior boys with their after-dinner cigars.

Class Night

Talent ranging from chimney sweeps to mandolinists was revealed during the First Annual Senior Class Night on May 31. The second half of this program was devoted to the presentation of awards by Messrs. Parrish, MacKinlay, and Poly. Concluding the evening, the Class of 1966, accompanied by Mr. Brooks, sang their class song, "Farewell and Goodbye."
